

Phi Beta Kappa Alumni in Southern California
Alpha Association

is pleased to present

The Broad: An Inside View

Sunday, November 13, 2016

Registration: 1:00 p.m.

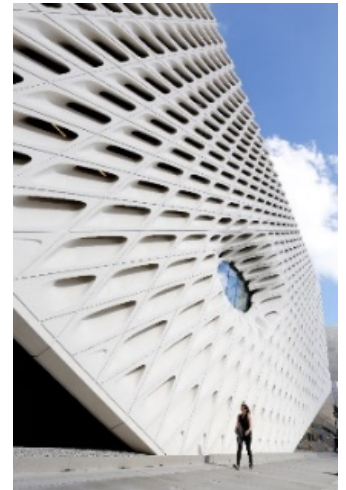

Tours start promptly at 1:30 p.m.

The Broad

221 S. Grand Ave., Downtown Los Angeles, CA 90012

Learn about the Broad's unique "veil-and-vault" architectural design and the highlights of the collection. One-hour guided tours will be conducted in small groups to give PBK Alpha Association guests an optimal experience. Enjoy the remainder of the afternoon visiting the rest of the museum on your own.

The Broad, founded by philanthropists Eli and Edythe Broad in downtown Los Angeles opened in September 2015. The museum is home to 2,000 works of art in the Broad collection, which is said to be "among the most prominent holdings of postwar and contemporary art worldwide" (www.thebroad.org). The collection includes works by major artists of the 1950's such as Jasper Johns, Robert Rauschenberg, and Cy Twombly. A prominent part of the collection is represented by works of Pop artists of the 1960's, including Roy Lichtenstein, Ed Ruscha, and Andy Warhol. Also well represented are such artists of the 1980's: Jean-Michel Basquiat, Keith Haring, Barbara Kruger, and Jeff Koons.

The cost of this event is $30 per person. See the reverse for essential information about our visit to The Broad, as well as for directions (www.thebroad.org).

Parking is $12 for the day on weekends. We request that you RSVP -- space is limited, first-come first-served, so please respond prior to November 4th. The first fifty guests to arrive will start on the 1:30 p.m. guided tour (in groups of ten). If more than fifty reservations are received, then the next group will start their tour (in groups of ten) at 2:00 p.m.

Please be sure to print your phone number and e-mail address legibly, in the event we need to contact you. Your information will not be shared with other organizations. Questions may be directed to Bette Harris at bnapharris@aol.com; daytime phone: 310-447-5788, cell phone on day of event: 310-994-1252.

We look forward to seeing you on November 13!

P.S. Check out the Fall 2016 edition of Key Notes, hot off the press, only available online at www.pbksocalumni.com.
